

University of Roehampton and Roehampton Students' Union
Fairtrade Policy

The University of Roehampton and Roehampton Students' Union (RSU) is committed to the principles of Fairtrade and to making fairly-traded products available across the University community.

The University and RSU is committed to:

1. The provision of Fairtrade products in campus shops and cafes/restaurants/bars on campus
2. The availability of Fairtrade drinks (for example coffee and tea) at all meetings hosted by the University, its colleges and the RSU (including management meetings).
3. The promotion of increased Fairtrade awareness across the University in a number of ways including annual participation in Fairtrade Fortnight.
4. Ensuring that the University Environmental Network, has the promotion of Fairtrade within its remit, and will take responsibility communicating this policy throughout the University and for monitoring and developing the availability of Fairtrade products within the University
5. Ensuring that a Fairtrade Steering Group is established and consists of student representatives, representatives from Roehampton Students Union, the Head of Catering, the Environment and Sustainability Officer and the University Chaplaincy.
